2026 Kick-Off Event!

We held our annual kick-off meeting this June where we welcomed our entire team to celebrate the people who make our organization strong, recognize employee milestone anniversaries, and share exciting updates on where we're headed together.

We were also honored to welcome keynote speaker Jane Chen, who shared her story and led our team through an engaging Design Thinking workshop. At Atlas, we believe investing in our people is one of the best investments we can make. Here's to another year of learning, growing, and moving forward together!

Atlas Out & About!

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our seminar: From Risk to Resilience: Emergency Planning That Works, presented in partnership with Hawaii Employers Council in June! We appreciated the opportunity to share practical strategies and real-world insights to help local organizations strengthen their Emergency Action Plans and better prepare for the unexpected. At Atlas, we're committed to helping Hawaii businesses navigate risk with confidence and build stronger, more resilient organizations!

Creating workplaces where women can thrive isn't just the right thing to do - it's a business advantage. We're proud to share that Atlas' Executive VP of Business Insurance, Carol Davis, participated in Hawaii Business Magazine's inaugural Best Places to Work Training Day event on the panel, Where Women Thrive: Creating Pathways to Leadership and Equity. Joined by fellow business leaders, Carol shared insights on how organizations can create meaningful opportunities for women to grow and lead through mentorship, leadership development, equitable policies, and an inclusive workplace culture. Mahalo to Hawaii Business Magazine for bringing together important conversations that help shape the future of work in Hawaii!
